

EVENT ANNOUNCEMENT/REVISED 2/18/22

For this year's Women's History Month the Metro Association is offering four sessions on Walking the Walk and Talking the Talk.

In the month of March we'll begin to explore what it means for women of Euro-descent to "Talk the Talk and Walk the Walk" of racial justice — personally, collectively, and in the world. In our nation's history there have been women of Euro descent who have stood up and put their bodies on the line for racial justice and this tradition continues today.

Come, hear from three UCC women clergy of Euro-descent from across the country on what they're doing in their lives and spheres of ministry to dismantle racism and white supremacy culture.

Come, hear about how this work often gripped them from a young age, how they are continue to live into their calls of racial justice, and how they're holding themselves and their communities accountable.

Rev. Clare Twomey, Co-Pastor, Vista Grande United Church of Christ, Colorado Springs, Colorado

Rev. Amanda Handler-Voss, Senior Minister, First UCC DC Washington, D.C.

Rev. Laura McLeod, Pastor of Brookfield Congregational Church Brookfield, Wisconsin.

In the final session we'll look together at these conversations and explore how to move forward in hearing one another's stories, in becoming braver up-standers of justice and un-doers of white supremacy culture within and around us.

These sessions will be facilitated by Rev. Dr. Kris Watson, Executive Minister Metropolitan Association and Rev. Susan Switzer, Intentional Interim Minister & Sacred Conversations Facilitator Training 2022 Cohort.

